Fees for Overdrafts and Non-Sufficient Funds

Please refer to Standard Overdraft Practices above

Overdraft Protection Transfer Fee

$12.50 for each day there is a transfer from another account to cover one or more overdrafts in a checking account. This fee is charged to the account where the funds are transferred from. There are several Overdraft Protection options available.

Overdraft Fee

When an item is paid although funds are not available in the account

$38.50 for each overdraft item we pay, unless one of the following exceptions apply:

- The amount of the item is less than $5.00;
- The overdraft results from an ATM or one-time debit card transaction from your checking account and you have not elected to permit us to authorize and pay these transactions when you do not have enough money to pay them; OR
- Your account has already been charged a total of 5 NSF and overdraft fees for items processed for payment on that business day

Insufficient Funds (NSF) Fee

When an item is returned because there are not enough funds available in the account to pay the item

$38.50 for each item we return due to insufficient funds, unless one of the following exceptions apply:

- The amount of the item is less than $5.00; OR
- Your account has already been charged a total of 5 NSF and overdraft fees for items processed for payment on that business day

Extended Overdraft Fee

$38.50 extended overdraft fee will apply if you do not repay all amounts you owe to us by the 7th business day after your checking account became overdrawn or further overdrawn.

NOTE: You will not be charged an extended overdraft fee if the overdraft in your account is solely attributable to ATM and one-time debit card transactions and you have not elected to permit us to authorize and pay these transactions when you do not have enough money to pay them.
Funds Availability

Please see the Availability Disclosure for Consumer Deposit Accounts for more information.

SAME-BUSINESS-DAY AVAILABILITY

Funds from the following deposits are available on the same business day as we receive the transfer or deposit:

- Cash
- Wire transfers via Fedwire or CHIPS
- ACH credit entries in which a party initiates a transfer of funds from its account to your account, including electronic direct deposits such as payroll and Social Security payments; however, funds received for deposit by means of an international ACH transaction (IAT) may not be made available until certain monitoring and review procedures are completed and, therefore, may not be available on the same business day as we receive the transaction.

NEXT-BUSINESS-DAY AVAILABILITY

Funds from the deposit of domestic checks (i.e., deposited items drawn on financial institutions located in the United States, District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, and the U.S. Virgin Islands) are available on the first business day after the day of your deposit.

BUSINESS DAYS

Deposits made after our business day cutoff time will be considered made on the next business day. Our business days are Monday through Friday, excluding federal holidays.

LONGER HOLDS

Funds availability for other check deposits may vary. Special rules apply to new accounts. Longer holds may apply in certain circumstances.

Posting Order

For more detailed information, please refer to the General Deposit Account Agreement.

Transactions can be posted in “real time” or in “batch” at the end of the day. Transactions do not always post in the order in which they occur. Transactions which post in batch will be posted in the following order:

- Credits Post First: Batch posting begins with the posting of deposits and other credits (other than interest, which is credited at the end of batch).
- Next, we post Debits: Debit Items generally post in the group order shown below. Within each group, a unique methodology is used based on the type of items within the group. See the following chart for details on the types of transactions in each group and the order used for the items within each group.
- Fees and Service Charges: Fees may post real-time or in batch. If posted in batch, most fees post at the end of batch processing, but some post immediately after the transaction to which they relate. Most fees post on the same day they are incurred, however, certain fees, including NSF and Overdraft fees, are posted on the following business day.
